The Humble

ADDRESSES

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal In PARLIAMENT Assembled.Die Veneris 22 Novembris, 1717.Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, Do return Your Majesty our humble Thanks for Your most Gracious Speech from the Throne, and for Your Regard to the Conveniency of Your Subjects, in Meeting them so early in Parliament; and beg leave to express to Your Majesty the just Sense we have of Your great Concern for the Ease of Your People, in Disbanding so considerable a Number of Your Forces, and of Your Care, at the same time, in Consulting their Safety. We return Your Majesty our most humble Thanks for Your unwearied Endeavours and Application towards Preserving

Preserving and Settling the Peace and Tranquillity of Europe, and of these Your Kingdoms; against the many Attempts of all kinds to Disturb them; and cannot sufficiently express our Satisfaction, that there is a Prospect of Success: And do Assure Your Majesty, That as you have been Pleased, in so Gracious a manner, to Declare Your Interests and those of Your People Inseparable; so nothing shall be wanting on our Parts, at this Critical Juncture, towards Supporting Your Majesty with the utmost Zeal and Vigour, 'till Your Majesties Endeavours for the Quiet of Christendom, and the Good of Your People, have had their full and desired Effect.

We have a grateful Sense of Your Majesties Concern for the Protestant Religion, and the Church of England, as by Law Established, which as it has always been the Chief of the Protestant Churches, so it can never be so well Supported as by Strengthening and Uniting (as far as may be) the Protestant Interest.

HIS MAJESTIES most Gracious ANSWER.

My LORDS,

I Thank you for this Dutiful and Loyal Address. The Zeal you express for the Support of My Government cannot but have the best Effect upon Our Affairs both at Home and Abroad.

F I N I S.
